HARLEM RACING.

Harlem's start for its second week was made under the most favorable conditions as to track, weather and crowd. Of the 61 starters in the six races of the day no horse carried anything like his weight for age. It seems as if racetrack managers nowadays had got into their heads the idea that the scale of weights is wrong, notwithstanding the fact that it has been framed by the best intellects known to the turf. Adverse criticism of racing programs of the present pass "in one ear and out the other" as far as racing officials go, and these gentlemen seem determined to ignore the well determined fact that racing contests are bettered when horses carry high weights. A premium is today put upon the inferior animal, bred for speed alone, and his bantam jockey whose life is constantly in danger. Men, and not boys, should ride racehorses, and a handicap where the top weight is 108 pounds, and this carried by a six-year-old horse, is a sorry affair. There were nineteen regular and two field bookmakers.

"Scrambled Eggs" is the expression used by the stable lads to describe the position of the horses as they stand at the post as did they in the first race yesterday. This way and that were their heads, and at the several breakaways, mostly caused by Fardel, Vincennes and Andes, Rio Chico ran the farthest. Once Jockey Joe's rider, Winkfield, was on the ground. Mr. Dwyer kept his temper and the start was fairly good. Rio Chico first to break was quickly outrun by Andes and Nilmah, the first named winning all the way. At his last start he was heavily backed but was left at the post. Into the home-stretch Nilmah (carrying Pat Dunne's colors although owned by F. R. Hamlin) was lengths better than Rio Chico, just behind which horse ran Jockey Joe. At the finish Ellis, by hard work, got place honors for Rio Chico, although "Skeets" Martin was on Nilmah. Well up were Jockey Joe and Antiquary. Harry Nutter ran a fair race.

Alvarado II., on the strength of his last few races, was thought to have one chance in thirty of winning and his price stayed "way up yonder" until near post time, when a vigorous onslaught from the California contingent sent the odds down to 15 to 1. Uarda had always been a hot favorite. She got off well, as did the others, but Inuendo headed her at the first turn, where Alvarado took third position. Owner Murphy had given H. Martin orders to "lay off" with Uarda, and the favorite was dropped back so that at the head of the straight the onlookers thought an accident had befallen her. Inuendo ran in the lead to the last eighth where he "folded his tent" and Alvarado passed him with seemingly nothing to beat but Prosecutor, but at the final sixteenth along came "Skeets" with Uarda and split the pair. Alvarado, however, winning in a drive. Prince Blazes, last at the first turn, ran a good race.

Fair Deceiver led for a short distance in the third race, then the favorite, Good Friend, passed on and not again headed, taking the short road, won well whipped out from Locust Blossom, second. The finish for third money was a hot one, engaged in by Abina (who was "th at the last quarter and was running longly at the final sixteenth), Nivoce, Barataria, Nannie Davis and Apple Jack, the latter "cashing."

For the handicap the What Next party said "We have a cinch on Fervor as at New Orleans there was nothing to it," and many of the smart ones around the track took the tip, after the betting showed that the handicappers thought Fervor would "put it on" Found. For Huffman's filly opening at 8 to 5 jumped to 12 to 5, while Fervor always staid at 7 to 5. At the start Satsuma was on the extreme outside and slightly behind the others, and so remained until the half mile ground had been passed, when he took third position, an open length behind Fervor. Found had up to this point led the favorite and so continued to do to the last eighth where she quit. Here Satsuma looked to be a factor in the race, J. McDonald having taken him in close to the rails at the turn. After the race there was some talk that when Satsuma tried to pass Found that McNickle pulled the latter across and stopped Rowell's horse. If this was so, it might be argued "Satsuma had no business in there." However, to say that a foul occurred one must be hypercritical. With Found and Satsuma done, Fervor money looked good, when from the rear came "Skeets" Martin on What Next. He had ridden a waiting race, and with plenty left his horse ran home an easy winner. Pete Kitchen stayed in company about five-eighths of a mile. Fervor, second, beat Found several lengths.

Hero Jr., delaying the start, finally shot out in front, only to soon drop entirely out of the race and finish "absolutely." Mazie V. took the lead into the straight, closely followed by Cambrian and Survivor. The pair last named were racing alongside at the last eighth where Cambrian quit to nothing and Survivor walked home, thus scoring for "Skeets" Martin three wins in succession. H. Martin also ran third with Nilmah and second with Uarda. Doremus and Volandies had a great finish for place, the four pounds overweight telling on Scoggan's colt and placing him third. Rosa Masso was going strongly at the finish.

J. Reiff wound up the day by a sensational win. He rode Inconstancy splendidly, lying in fourth position up the back stretch, where Lew Hopper led from Lady Ellerslie with St. Alfonses D. close up third. Around the upper turn Little Reiff cut through in the second position, and running easily, Inconstancy caught and passed the favorite at the end of the betting ring and galloped home a winner. Lew Hopper just beat St. Alfonses D. for third money, the pair being lengths behind Lady Ellerslie and not very far away Croesus and Jack of Hearts were abreast and whipping. H. Martin was posted in the betting ring as the jockey of Lady Ellerslie but midway the time allotted for speculation Sweeney announced "put Everett on Lady Ellerslie." The odds about Licalzi's filly then jumped from 1 to 3 up to 2 to 5. It was rumored that the Iowa plunger won largely over Inconstancy but plenty of 25 to 1 was to be seen on the boards after the race.

After much talk and considerable thinking W. H. May and Son finally parted with their good Albert—Hoo Doo filly Jinks. James McCormick became her owner yesterday. The price paid Mr. McCormick refused to say, but insinuated that it was between $4,000 and $5,000. Jinks has started eleven times, been first in seven races, third in one and three times unplaced.

The story floated about that W. B. Sink was so sure that Alvarado II. had an excellent chance, that he offered to let any man have a bill of sale of even Formero, in order to raise money to back his horse. Whether or not the owner "got down" is problematical, but "somebody" bet on Alvarado II. at 30 to 1, and Barney Schreiber is credited with having made a nice stake.

Pingree, G. W. Belknap's good colt, has been laid up for a well deserved rest at Grand Rapids, Mich. He is in good condition and will be shipped to Chicago at once, ready to race.

Ed Austin has the betting privileges at Newport. There will be bookmaking.

Winner—Br. c. by Helicon—Jess.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Andes was fortunate in getting away. Bloss had the colt in a good spot at the post and when the barrier arose was away like a shot out of a gun. After that the result was never in doubt. Rio Chico is a quick breaker and this helped him considerably in being as close up as he was. He was used a lot in breakaways, though at the post. Nilmah had bad luck in the race but for that he would have been second. Antiquary, outrun on the far turn, finished strong under punishment. Harry Nutter looked dangerous at the three-furlong pole but bolted on the stretch turn. Old Fox favors mud. He seemed to prop all through the stretch.

Scratched—Vim and Vinegar, 105; First Tenor, 103; Musket, 103.

Overweights—Boardman, 3 pounds; Rio Chico, 2.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Amigo—Santa Margarita.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third and fourth doing their best. Alvarado II. had the speed of the party. He was in close to the rail all the way and never once showed a disposition to sulk. This is a useful horse when he runs true. Uarda is in bad form these days. She seemed to be running easily in a good position on the back stretch, but tried to run out on the far turn, losing considerable ground by it. Martin punished her mercilessly through the stretch. Prosecutor was well ridden. Conley took a desperate chance to get through on the first turn and saved ground the entire route. Prince Blazes does better on a muddy track. He ran a fair race, though, and was closing fast. Inuendo tired badly when the pinch came. The route was a trifle too far for him. Dorothy III. had a stormy journey. Collins was bumped into on the first turn and sulked after that. He is a bad betting tool.

Alvarado II., place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Uarda, place, 1 to 2; Prosecutor, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Eolus—Ruth.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden; third, fourth and fifth under keen pressure. Good Friend got away well, had her usual turn of speed and the way the race was run was far the best. Martin took no chances with the filly though, and never eased her until the wire was reached. Locust Blossom's race was a cracking good one. She was all tangled up at the start and never really got on her stride until the three-eighths pole was reached. Had she got off and had the same racing luck as Good Friend the result might have been different. Under a powerful ride Apple Jack came fast at the finish. Nivoce got a bungling ride. Considering this his race was a good one. Watch Abina. From a poor beginning she showed a lot of speed; is a good looker and can run three-quarters in 1:15.

Scratched—Xalissa, 103; Major Hawkins, 109.

Good Friend, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Locust Blossom, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Apple Jack, show, 10 to 1.

8178 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selection and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

HARLEM RACING.

Mrs. F. C. Bauman will sell at auction in the paddock at Harlem, Thursday at 1:30 p. m., the good performers, Patroon, Yours Truly and Papa Harry.

J. E. Cushing is among the arrivals from St. Louis. Mr. Cushing sold Harry Shannon and Pinkey Potter before leaving St. Louis.

Jim Sellers gave an exhibition of fancy riding on a sorrel horse before the judges stand between the fifth and sixth races.

Immediately after the slates are raised the noise of cleaning "rubbers" reminds one of beating carpets.

L. W. Benson is stabled at Hawthorne with David, Hobart, and a two-year-old filly.

Barney Schreiber was a welcome addition to the ranks of horsemen and bookmakers.

John Devereaux, Mike Mallory and Mose Cosman have arrived from Saratoga.

Dr. Talbot, the celebrated veterinary surgeon, came up from St. Louis.

Murray Keller and Ed Smith, of Hot Springs, Ark., were visitors.

William Riley went from Saratoga to New York city.

Louis Ezell is willing to sell Espionage.

HAWTHORNE NOTES.

W. C. Christy telegraphed from St. Louis yesterday that he would ship the following four horses from there to Hawthorne Wednesday, and asked that stalls be reserved for them: Gold Band, Silver Set, Veloce and Pinochle. They are all winners at the Fair Grounds and one of them, Pinochle, is well engaged in the stakes here.

The following owners took up quarters at the track yesterday: J. S. O'Brien with eleven, Tom Hurns with three, L. W. Benson with three, John W. Schorr & Son with twelve, and O. G. Parke with seven.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:15, 1:41.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Deceiver—Brigetta.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end; the others were driving. What Next was nicely ridden and ran a clever race. He was well played too. Satsuma, perhaps, should have won. He saved a lot of ground on the first and far turns and was running comparatively easy when straightened away for home. He was on the inside and coming strong. McNickle on Found saw his filly was beaten and instead of letting Satsuma through deliberately shut him off causing McDonald to pull the old horse almost to a standstill. Fervor was right there all the way, perhaps too much so, for he had nothing left to stall of What Next's rush at the end. Anything over ninety pounds seems to stop Found. It was a pretty race all the way.
Scratched—Dare II, 97; Plantain, 85; David Tenny, 112.
What Next, place, even; Fervor, place, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Strathmore—Ella F.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second, third and fourth driving even harder. Survivor had a lot of luck and was well ridden. He is a good colt and it was his turn to have some luck in a race. Doremus ran an extraordinarily game race. He was off in the rear division, bumped at every turn and finished game and true. Little Reiff skinned the rails on the stretch turn and was slightly interfered with at the eighth pole. With clear sailing he would have given Survivor a tough argument. Cambrian appears to be a coward. He was running easiest when straightened away, but when Everett applied the whip the colt seemed to stop. Volandies was also fading away at the finish. Mazie V and Gold Fox ran their races at the post. So did Hero Jr., who had a good turn of speed.
Scratched—Wilmington's Pet, 102.
Overweights—Volandies, 4 pounds.
Survivor, place, 4 to 5. Doremus, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Volandies, show, 3 to 2.

8180 SIXTH RACE—7 1-2 Furlongs. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Br. f. 4, by Galore—Faithless.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won handily. The next three were doing their best. It was a good race and takes a half second off from the previous track record. Inconstancy was in rare form. She won simply on account of the way that the race was run. The early pace was terrific. First Lew Hopper took a crack at Lady Ellerslie and raced head and head with her for three furlongs. When the filly shook Hopper off, along came St. Alfonses D. This naturally took all the heart out of her and when challenged by Inconstancy in the stretch the filly had nothing left. Inconstancy was cleverly handled. Reiff used judgment in waiting for those in front to come back and made his move at the right time. Lew Hopper had a lot of speed but it was wasted early. Watch this horse. He is good and can win. St. Alfonses D. stopped when he seemed to be galloping.
Scratched—King's Highway, 102; Depending, 102; Paul Griggs, 114.
Overweights—Lizzie Miles, 2 pounds.

Start good. Won pulled up. The Kentuckian was easily the best. Frances Booker, under bad handling, bumped her way through on the bend and finished very strong. Ben Viking closed gamely. Chemisette had scant chance with her jockey. Roysterer ran his race. Cathedral stopped in the stretch and swerved badly under punishment. Domineer likes mud. Easter Card bolted on the bend. Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Topgallant—Equality.
Start good. Won easily. Algol was much the best. He was finely handled throughout and is in very good form. The Huguenot got a poorly judged ride. He lay away too long to beat a sprinter like Algol through the last quarter. He ran a grand race and is better than ever. Endeavor got a vigorous finish. Rondo closed strong at the end. Blue Devil ran finely and is at his best. He is very good in mud.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:10.
*Added starter.
Winner—B. c. by Bermuda—Lisric.
Start good. Won easily. Ways and Means is a crackerjack. He closed strong and was well ridden. Sanford was lucky and well handled. He ran well and finished gamely. Mr. Phinizy closed strong from a bad beginning. He is a stayer and will do better. Greyfeld got off slowly and green but ran a cracking good race. He will do to watch. Kentucky Colonel was crowded out of the race on the stretch turn and had no chance thereafter. Throw the race out altogether. Duke of Middleburg was overweighted. Marblehead the same.
Scratched—Acushla, 115; Lepida, 115; Mr. Clay, 118.
Corrected weights—Ways and Means, 125.
Ways and Means, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Sanford, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Mr. Phinizy, show, 4 to 5.

8166 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (On Main Track.) $600 added. 3-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances.
